QUICK FACTS

- Detroit City FC enters Saturday in third place in the Eastern Conference with 32 points, while Tampa Bay Rowdies lead the conference with 44 points. A DCFC win would cut the gap to nine points and reinforce their place in the top-three.
- DCFC owns one of the league's best defenses, conceding only 17 goals and recording eight clean sheets through 19 matches. Tampa Bay leads the USL Championship with 10 clean sheets but has scored 38 goals, second-most in the league.
- Darren Smith leads the USL Championship Golden Boot race with 12 goals for Le Rouge. Tampa Bay's MD Myers is tied for sixth in the league with nine goals.
- The Rowdies arrive in strong form, with four wins in their last five matches. Detroit has taken eight points from its last five league matches, with wins over Indy Eleven and FC Tulsa, draws against Miami FC and Loudoun United, and a 1-0 loss to Las Vegas Lights, their only home loss this season.
- DCFC holds recent success in the series at Keyworth Stadium, beating Tampa Bay 2-0 in August 2025. The most recent meeting ended 1-1 in Tampa Bay last October.
